It isn't the way men talk, but the way they vote, that carries elections.

A number of the young folks of the city are today nutting in the country.

Rev. Dr. J. N. Craig of Atlanta, who died suddenly this week at Newport News, Va., while addressing the Synod of Virginia on missionary work, was a near relative of Mrs. Charles T. Perrie, well known in this country.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Sweeney occurred this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church and the remains were interred at Washington. Mrs. Sweeney died Thursday at her home on East Fourth street, aged 32. Her husband, Mr. Michael Sweeney, and four children survive.

Mrs. Margaret Schwartz, President of the State Rebekah Assembly, was honored with a banquet by Friendship Lodge last evening. At the close of the meeting of the Order Mrs. Schwartz was led to the library where a most tempting lunch had been prepared as a surprise. For some time the members thoroughly enjoyed themselves in a happy social manner.

WARD'S MINSTRELS.

Harry Ward's Magnificent Minstrels, which will hold the boards at the Washington Opera-House Wednesday, Oct. 31st, is this season one of the best minstrel organizations on the road. The company is a very popular one and is composed of artists of reputation and talent, and includes Harry Ward, the next President of Minstrelsy; Messrs. Decker and Rasch, the Great Newton, Muller and Vander, Briggs, the Champion Trick Cyclist of the world and Mr. Thomas Crockett, the celebrated Pan-American Exposition Quartette, and Master Hearsey, from the Cathedral Montreal. A grand noonday parade will be given the day of the performance. The sale of seats is now on at Nelson's.

Special leader is an all-wool Plaid Blanket, worth at least $4.50, priced here at $3.49.

KINGS OF LOW PRICES ROSENAU BROS. PROPRIETORS

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. S. J. Pugh at Mayslick and Maysville Next Wednesday.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh will speak at Mayslick next Wednesday, October 31st, at 1 o'clock, and at Maysville at 7:30 in the evening.

The public is invited to attend and hear a discussion of National and state issues.

Andrew J. Lowell, born in Aberdeen in 1813, died recently near Fairmount, Ill.

A little daughter of Mrs. Charles Gettis at Washington is very ill with pneumonia.

L. W. Galbraith has been presiding in the Police Court in the absence of Judge Wadsworth.

We have the goods, patterns and prices in Plush and Fur Robes. Leggings for the boys. KLIPP & BROWN, 12 and 14 East Second street.

The Hon. Thomas D. Theobald of Grayson spoke last night to a large and enthusiastic audience at the Court-house. Mr. Theobald is a Democrat who cannot stomach the modern "isms" that have been injected into the time-honored creed of that party; and so he is now speaking in behalf of the Republican candidates. His argument throughout was logical, conservative and convincing. As usual, there was a Goebellie present to interrupt the speaker, but he got a broadside that jarred the cobwebs on his 1 1/2x1 1/2 brain.

When you cannot sleep for coughing it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat and make sleep possible. Try it. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

NEW CROP.

Pure N. O. Molasses just received at G. W. Geisels'; also fine new Sorghum.

HANDSOME MONUMENT.

A. B. Scott, salesman for F. C. McCole's Granite Works at Manchester, recently set up a very handsome monument for the Wm. Bramel estate in Maysville Cemetery. It is one of the handsomest in our beautiful cemetery and gave good satisfaction. McCole has one of the largest monument manufacturing plants in the country, having all the modern machinery for working granite and marble, while turning out the most satisfactory work, can make lower prices than any other firm in the Ohio Valley. Write this firm or see their gentlemanly representatives when wanting a monument.

Note: As to matter of comparison with local dealers: We recently received in one month 11 full carloads of granite. Our freight bills with the C. and O. Railway at this point alone, besides our Branch House at Portsmouth, O., will amount this year to $5,000. We have forty men employed. These figures subject to the fullest investigation. Respectfully, F. C. McCole.

THE Y. M. C. A.

What That Institution is Doing For Maysville Young Men.

Men's Rally at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock will be conducted by W. T. Berry. All men cordially invited to be present.

Through the kindness of two of the active members fine new oak grates have been placed in the shower baths.

For ready-to-wear hats see the styles at Mrs. L. V. Davis's.

THE HANDSOMEST MONUMENT.

Murray & Thomas have just erected a granite monument for W. H. Tilton in Mt. Olivet Cemetery which is by far the handsomest one there; and Mr. Tilton, upon comparing it with others, is willing to certify that he got both a bargain and a beauty.

Both Murray and Thomas are practical men, doing all that two men can possibly do of their own work, employing none but the best to help them and giving all work their personal supervision. They buy from the largest wholesale and importing houses in the country, and feel they can, for the same class of work, give better prices than any one in this part of the country, not having any representative, or in other words agents, to pay a commission, thereby saving an enormous expense. As a matter of comparison with others they wish to say that they are kept busy all the time without the solicitation of agents or the writing of soliciting letters.

If you are needing anything in the monumental line, either in granite or marble, they take this opportunity of saying that if you will let them know of same they will be pleased to call on and give you the benefit of a practical experience of over thirty years.

PUGH AT SARDIS.

A Large Gathering to Hear President and Next Congressman.

Hon. S. J. Pugh addressed an audience estimated at between 400 and 500 people at Sardis Thursday. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Robert M. Marshall, a Democrat of the old school, who in a short but strong and pointed speech, announced his purpose of acting with the Republicans, and implored his friends to do likewise. At the conclusion Mr. Pugh arose and for one and one-half hours held the closest attention of the crowd while in a masterly effort he discussed the issues, National, state, etc. The speech was replete with wit, humor and pathos and will win votes for the ticket.

There were many old veterans present and it is sincerely hoped that all such will cast their vote on November 6th for that true and tried friend of the soldier, and of all mankind, the Christian gentleman, Hon. S. J. Pugh. The Civil Liberty Club at Sardis now numbers 155.

LARGER BALLOT BOXES.

Will Not Be Required Under the Law Now in Force.

FRANKFORT, Ky., October 24th.—That clause in the new Election Law which is now in force providing that all the ballots shall be counted, rolled up, the bundle sealed, and placed in the ballot-box is liable to cause some confusion, for the reason that when the ballots are rolled up they make such a big bundle it cannot be put into the openings in the ballot-boxes now in use all over the state. The Sheriff of this county has ordered new boxes with openings large enough to admit the big roll of ballots. Unless other Sheriffs do likewise at once the ballots cannot be put in the boxes when the polls close on November 6th, and the plain provision of the law will be violated and the vote of each Precinct made liable to be thrown out because of the illegality.

The Goebell papers—The Bulletin included—are publishing the foregoing "rot."

There are no such requirements as to "rolling up" the ballots and stuffing them through the opening in the ballot-box.

Section 10 of the amended law says after the ballots have been counted they shall be strung on a string provided for that purpose, wrapped twice around each way with the string upon which they are strung, tied in a hard bow knot and the knot sealed with sealing wax. Then the ballots are to be placed in the large linen envelope provided by the County Clerk, the envelope sealed and the election officers shall write their names across the seal, and then the envelope shall be further sealed with hot sealing wax and the precinct election seal, after which the envelope shall be "placed in the ballot-box"—not stuffed through the opening—and the ballot-box shall then be securely locked with the two locks, and the keys given in charge of the Judge of the precinct who is of the opposite political faith to that of the precinct Sheriff. Then the Sheriff takes charge of the ballot-box. Within two days after the election the Judge holding the keys shall accompany the Sheriff to the County Clerk's office, when the County Clerk shall unlock the ballot-box and see that the ballots, etc., are in it and properly sealed, and if they are he shall give a receipt to both the Judge and the Sheriff for the box and its contents. The Clerk then gives to the Judge and the Sheriff each a key to the box, and if at the end of six months there is no contest over the election, they shall return the keys to the County Clerk and he shall open the ballot-box and destroy the ballots. That's the law.
